ADJUSTED.

Employees Agree.

As a result of the visit of G. M. Hyams, from Boston, representing the Old Deminion Copper Mining company, the disagreement between the company, and its employees was quickly and satisfactorily adjusted and work resumed on Monday.

The Globe Belt says Mr. Hyams was waited upon Thursday evening by a committee of the miners, to whom he submitted the proposition of the company which, briefly stated, was that —I wish to inform you of the great pany which, briefly stated, was that good Chamberlain's Pain Balm has the company was willing to resume done my wife. She has been troubled operations without unnecessary delay and restore the wages in force under the old company, their predecessors, but found no relief until she used this or adopt the Buffalo scale, practically Pain Ba'm; one bottle of which has the same, which is $3 for men in the mine and smelter and $2.50 for general labor about the surface.

Everything asked by the men was conceded, except that the company reserve the right to employ whom it pleased, free from dictation and without a formal recognition of the Minere' union.
